

A warm, cartoon-style illustration of a woman with long brown hair and a young child with curly brown hair. The woman is wearing a blue shirt with white stars and is smiling. The child is wearing an orange shirt with a red collar and is also smiling. They are both looking at an open book that the child is holding. The book has yellow pages and a blue cover. On the table in front of them are several colored pencils (blue, purple, green, pink) and a yellow cup. The background is a soft, light blue.
